

Attribute's Description of Dataset

This dataset represents the activity of a large number of customers who are interested in buying policies from an insurance company. Each Quote_Id corresponds to a potential customer and the Quote_Flag indicates whether the customer purchased a policy or not.

The provided features are anonymized and provide a rich representation of the prospective customer and policy. They include specific field, coverage, sales, personal, property and geographic information.